

Department of Anesthesiology

Division of Research

Research Volunteer Program

Now Accepting Applications

(5/1/25 -5/20/25)

Work Location: University of Texas Health Science Center San Antonio and University Hospital San Antonio, Texas

Schedule: Varies

Dates: Beginning July 7, 2025, end date varies based on assignments

Description:

Research Volunteers will assist the Department of Anesthesiology, Division of Research with various clinical and perioperative research endeavors, including data collection, mining, auditing, entry, and analysis. Project assignments will vary at a level commensurate with the experience and qualifications of the volunteer.

Eligibility Requirements:

All persons aged 16 and older minimum Junior in High School through doctorate level education, with relevant interests may apply. Some science background or previous research experience preferred.

Process:

- 1. Minimum age 16
- 2. Complete an application with the Department of Anesthesiology Division of Research.
- 3. Provide the following information to Employee Health:
  - a. Submit a copy of a current immunization record to include: Flu Vaccinations, COVID Vaccinations
  - b. Complete Health Screening TB PPD skin test required
- 4. Complete a TB test
- 5. Get a name badge
- 6. A background check will be ordered.

7. Daily sign-in and out required for all volunteers.
8. All Volunteers must successfully complete the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) training and provide copies of their certificates prior to participation in any research assignment.
9. Attend or complete Mandatory training as required by institutions.

Application:

Standard application, background check, and other institutional requirements will be required.

Interested persons should contact :

Sabrina Bent, MD, MS: bents@uthscsa.edu