

Code of Professional Conduct

Preamble

Because practicing medicine is an honor earned every day, we—the faculty and students of the Long School of Medicine—subscribe to the highest standards of conduct. Our aim is professional behavior beyond reproach. In particular, we subscribe to the following points of conduct:

CODE

I will promote and maintain an honest and effective learning environment.

I will:

- do my part to ensure that the environment promotes acquisition of knowledge and mastery of skills, including the timely submission of constructive feedback and evaluation;
- not tolerate harassment, flagrant disruption of the learning process, demeaning language or visual aids, disrespectful behavior, or lack of respect for life and living things;
- exhibit the highest standards of conduct, honesty, and professionalism;
- identify and report those who exhibit academic or professional misconduct; and
- appreciate each individual as a person of value and help maintain dignity during the learning process.

I will place primary emphasis on the health and welfare of patients.

I will:

- attain and maintain the most current knowledge in the healing arts and the skills to apply that knowledge;
- display respect and compassion for each patient;
- foster and preserve the trust that exists between the health care professional and the patient;
- respect and maintain the confidentiality of the patient; and
- let no patient in whose care I participate suffer physically or emotionally as a consequence of unprofessional behavior by myself or others.

I will conduct myself at all times in a professional manner.

I will:

- exhibit honesty, openness, and evenhandedness in dealing with others;
- maintain my personal hygiene and appearance in such a way that it does not interfere with my ability to communicate with patients, colleagues, or community;
- not engage in language or behavior which is disrespectful, abusive, or insulting;
- take responsibility for my actions, acknowledge my limitations, and ask for assistance when needed;
- assure the welfare of others is not compromised as a result of my inadequacy or impairment;
- not be deceitful or self-serving;
- achieve satisfactory balance in personal, community, and professional activities;
- not allow personal conflicts to interfere with objectivity in relationships with colleagues or patients;
- accommodate a fellow health care professional's request for my knowledge and expertise;
- refrain from the manifestation of bias, including sexual, marital, racial, ethnic, or cultural harassment;
- support my fellow health care professionals if they should falter; and
- identify colleagues whose ability to provide care is impaired, support them as they seek rehabilitation, and help them to reintegrate into the medical community.
