Obviously the higher your engagement rate the more successful brands will consider you and the higher they will be willing to pay it is difficult to find overall engagement rates for tiktok all the published ones appear to wrongly equate engagement with the percentage of people opening the app once a day however like most social media networks you can calculate your individual tiktok engagement with the following formula  $\frac{\text{number of hearts} + \text{number of comments}}{\text{number of followers}} \times 100$  you can calculate this either for a single post or overall we suggest that you add together the figures for your last 20 posts when you make this calculation overall

This also helps you better know your audience you re not making videos for yourself nor should you make a wide range of videos trying to keep everybody happy successful tiktokers make videos that they know their audience will love it is much easier to devote your attention to a particular group of people rather than just making random content

Like snapchat and igtv the convention on tiktok is to upload vertical videos the ideal aspect ratio is 1080x1920 write a suitable description of each video and include relevant hashtags pick an exciting thumbnail image for each video make sure you pick the most appropriate categories for your videos
