

University Hospital/UT Health
Histotechnology Training Program
Program Mission Statement

To provide trainees with the knowledge and skills necessary for careers in Histotechnology. To provide an educational and clinical atmosphere for trainees to gain new knowledge in human health and to become a provider of patient care activities that will improve the health of patients.